"Wine country on the Niagara Peninsula of Ontario, Canada, may sound a little incongruous. But the area about a half-hour west of Buffalo is home to a wine region of depth, diversity and distinction."

Things to explore:

The home of Ontario's first wine pioneers, Niagara-on-the-Lake combines rich Loyalist history with innovative agricultural techniques. Not to mention a bounty of farm-to-table cuisine and legendary theatre. The main attraction, however, is still the award-winning wineries. Clustered together like good friends, this region's wineries are perfectly situated for a day of tasting, with a stop for lunch at one of several excellent estate restaurants.

Our wine heartland.
Your delectable destination.

NIAGARA-ON-THE-LAKE

NIAGARA ESCARPMENT & TWENTY VALLEY

Warmth of feeling meets depth of flavour.

The key to this region's success is pretty hard to miss. The Niagara Escarpment is a natural wonder, rising 500 metres and stretching from New York all the way to Tobermory on Lake Huron. In Niagara, it creates perfect conditions for vineyards, cooling the vines in spring and warming the grapes in late summer. The result is a thriving community of innovative wineries making some of Canada's best vintages.

"As a sommelier, I am always searching for wines that speak of place. Wines that are balanced with fruit, acid and structure. Wines that have the ability to age but also that are easy to drink while relatively young. Wines that belong on the dinner table. Wines of Ontario have all of these things and more."

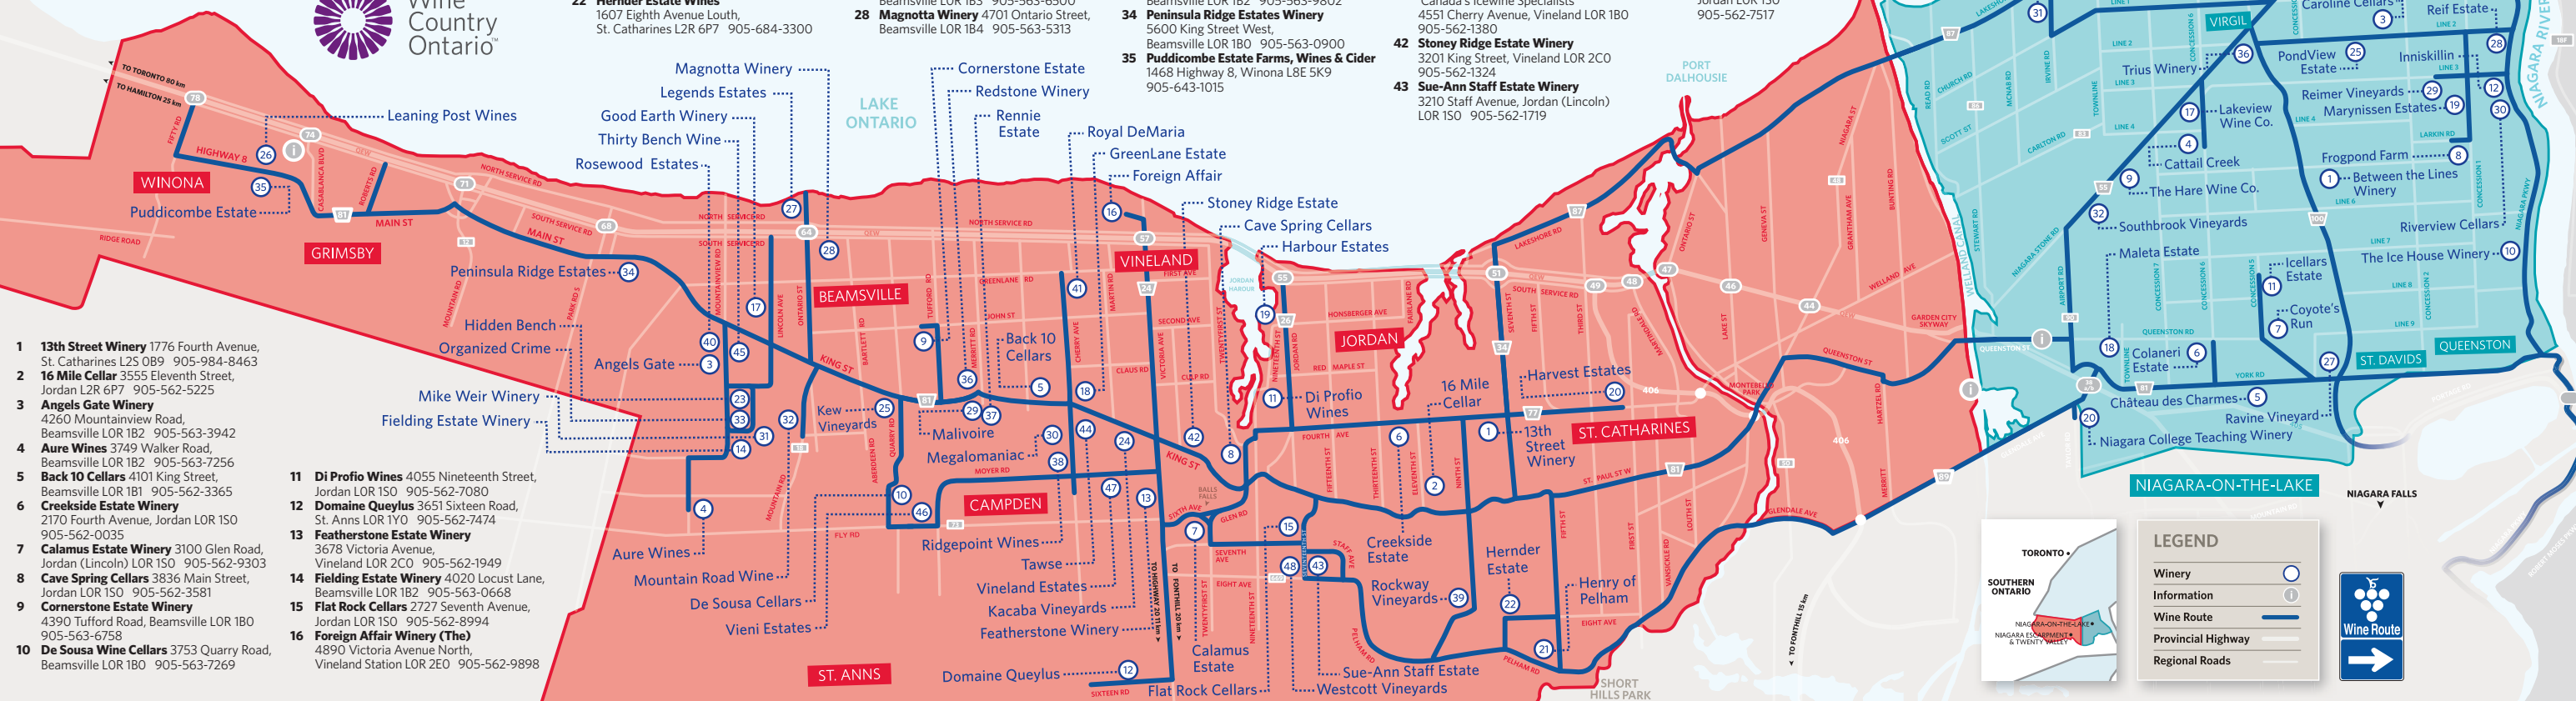

Michael Madrigale,
Wine Director for Bar Boulud and Boulud Sud, New York City
